

Division of Bond Finance
Comptroller of the Treasury
Core Ideology/Mission Statement

Our Core Values:

- Honesty and Integrity – We must be honest in all we do and say in order to reflect the highest degree of integrity.
- Accuracy and Reliability – The work we produce must be relevant, correct, professional and objective. Decision-makers and their publics must be able to depend on our work.
- Accountability – We must accept personal responsibility for the work we perform and the Office must take organizational responsibility for the work we collectively perform.
- Recognition of Individuals – We acknowledge and recognize the importance of each individual to the work group, the Division, and the Comptroller's Office.

Our Purpose:

Our Purpose is to serve the people of Tennessee by:

- Issuing, managing and repaying debt sold by the State, its agencies and authorities;
- Recording financial transactions accurately and preparing related financial statements;
- Insuring compliance with federal laws and regulations regarding debt issued in the capital market;
- Providing investors with accurate and timely information for their investment decisions;
- Reporting, timely and accurately, information and analysis to the citizens of Tennessee.

Our Mission:

To improve the quality of life for all Tennesseans by providing financial capital to fund approved projects in a timely manner with the right security at the lowest cost and to repay obligations in a timely manner.
